SPN#: 183581

Lance Mason

CHARGE(S):

TRESPASSING PROPERTY NOT STRUCTURE OR CONVEY

Defendant

SUPERVISED PRETRIAL RELEASE
AFFIDAVIT
VIOLATION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE

Before me, Walter Lay, Notary Public at Large in and for the State of Florida, personally came Jeanette Gaskins who, being first duly sworn, says that LANCE MASON, referred to as the aforesaid, was on the 10th day of Oct-2020 released into the Supervised Pretrial Release Division with the charge(s) of

TRESPASSING PROPERTY NOT STRUCTURE OR CONVEY

In that the aforesaid was court ordered by the Honorable Judge Barbara Hobbs at First Appearance on 10/10/20 to be released into the Supervised Pretrial Release Division with the special conditions of no contact with FSU; maintaining regular contact with the Supervised Pretrial Release Division; and remaining arrest free.

In that the aforesaid has violated the condition(s) of his release by failing abide by the no contact with FSU. Sgt. James Collier #201 with FSU PD informed Pretrial staff that the defendant contacted their office by phone on 11/02/20. Sgt. Collier also submitted emails to staff with attachments showing where the defendant has attempted to contact the FSU Property and Evidence Custodian, B. Woodaz on 10/16/20 and the Records Management Supervisor, K. Gray on 10/16/20 and 10/22/20 (see attached Law Supplemental Narrative and emails from FSU PD), per Jeanette Gaskins, Probation/Pretrial Officer II.

Therefore, it is recommended that the Pretrial Release be revoked.
