McArthur denials

Subject: RE: RE: RE: RE:

How have I fraudulently induced you?

I have wasted more time answering these emails than I care to admit. There is no shifting anything. I have not sent any letters to the names and addresses in Grady or anywhere from anything you've been involved in. I finally figured out how to get on a sharepoint site, at your repeated requests, and there is nothing there that I could see.

I have told you multiple times about the postage and the cost of sending letters within multiple phone conversations, emails and texts. Recall, I showed you where to get the names and addresses in the first place. You have a program that scrapes those names and addresses and makes it easier to send mail-outs. The names and addresses you are scraping are public record.

That is fine to have a clause in the contract to guarantee I will not independently, or through others, send letters to the names and addresses you send me. There is a problem with the fact that I have sent letters in the OK in the past. However, I figured we would just start from scratch with your lists. I think the problem could be solved with your name being on the letters also, which I suggested and you rebuffed. I also think that problem could be solved by YOU maintaining any lists. In fact, it works better that way. If, for instance, you have the names in a contact database on access, I can simply fill in the notes section and you quickly know how anything is progressing. You could audit by spot calling mineral owners to make sure I am not selling minerals and not including you.

Do me a favor. Call a few of those people on your lists and ask them how many letters they get per day asking if they want to sell their minerals. You are deriving way too much from the fact that I offered 50% of what we obtain from leads established by your program. Do you think I am hiding something from you? Do you think I have used your information and made money?

Unilateral change to agreement after gaining control of trade secrets

3/10/2016

McArthur. True...I won't show anything to him if you don't want, but there's no agreement to come to because it's all on spec. I hope he brings a fat deal and needs an attorney and needs a CPA and needs GIS. I want to show him he doesn't need to go anywhere but to me.

Do not give out the keys to the kingdom

I will NOT advise you to do that

If you can keep it hidden....by all means...cover cover cover

However, I can tell you Luke (like myself) is not in the business of circumventing a CPA or the person who brings the bling and gets the sale done on GIS. Believe me...there is too much other [redacted] to do. CPA GIS must be done, but it's not really something you can cut the guy out because your time is better spent looking for more deals and doing what I do and what Luke does than reinventing the wheel in some [redacted] I know nothing about and do not have a freaking CPA. Luke gets that,

Look at it this way- the money I've made at this so far has been due to one mailout I did from 1 OK pooling application and connections derived therefrom. I did that mailout total old school. If I use your stuff to make money, you get paid. If you trust me, you're good.

You have made your positions to each other already. At this point, for a proper mediation, were we all together in a mediation, each side would retire to separate rooms and speak just to the mediator. So how about y'all stop emailing each other directly?

Lance, when I get some time, I will go back and get familiar with everything like I was when I offered to meet I guess it was last year. Then we can sit down and talk about what I think. Meantime, could you boil your complaint down to its essence, one sentence, so I'm sure I look at everything with an aim to address your concern?

I've already asked you twice to stop threatening and making contact with Lynn. You are scaring him and disrupting his life. I told you we were finished discussing the matter with you but if you had a lawyer I would talk to him or her. (1) Your continuing, threatening contact with Lynn can now only be because it is your intent to harass and stalk him and serves no other purpose. (2) You have for some days now been threatening to turn me into the bar so I'm going to have to ask you to stop threatening and harassing both of us.

I invited you last year to come inspect Lynn's records to see that Lynn never used the list you created. (3) You never came to see me. You indicated you were glad a 3rd party had looked at the matter. We took your lack of follow up to mean you were satisfied Lynn had not done deals based on your list. (4)

There never developed nor was there put into writing and signed a fully formed agreement between you on this idea. (5) Lynn is not, despite your threats to turn him (and now me) in to the bar and sue, going to hand you 35k$ when he did not use your product (6), did not hire you to build him a program, and did not enter an agreement with you. Y'all discussed an idea where if you created a program that produced an accurate list of target sellers and if there was a mail out based on that list and if a target was interested and if Lynn could put a deal together and if that deal were to close y'all could share in the commission. (7)

Around the time you produced a list you turned down a written agreement. (8) You began accusing Lynn of theft and fraud and demanding Lynn immediately pay you thousands of dollars or you would complain about him to the bar and sue. Lynn decided you weren't someone stable enough with whom he could continue this business idea. Lynn came to see me last year to ask me to explain to you that he had not used your list and didn't owe you any money. You declined to come see me. 8

You are back now and have rapidly exceeded the scope of reasonable discourse. I believe you are now just seeking to inflict fear unless Lynn gives you money. 9

Do not communicate with either of us unless it is through an attorney. Should you do so, we will have explore our remedies which will include complaining about being threatened, harassed, and stalked. There is no reason for you to contact us again unless it is through an attorney. 10 We ask you to move on with the program you created and try to get others interested in paying you for using it.

RESPONSE

1. You promised to have financial and other records available. These would have been required a year before when you made your assertions, now proved false.
2. When you finished discussing the matter I noticed that instead of giving me a copy of your evaluation, you had still only provided a narrative with different words from Lynn. I never wanted Lynn to just reword his denials and have you deliver them, but instead had since day one asked for the accounting and mailing lists he used, after being given mailing lists that do the same thing by me.

3. I didn't think there would be a difference in what you showed me and what you were saying over the phone, so I trusted and relied on that.

4. The deception had been initially successful. It would be dishonest to accuse someone falsely without showing there was at least some thing I had based the accusation on. You were supposed to act as my agent to find out the answer

5. That is not a requirement as an agent or business partner or getting a haircut, among many others.

6. You refuse to provide the accounting which could prove or disprove the allegation. I have to rely solely on an evolving, self-interested denial by the defendant, which does not provide sufficient relevant information that would support my decision on whether or not I believe the denials

7. On what date did these discussions occur? Where do you find that information?

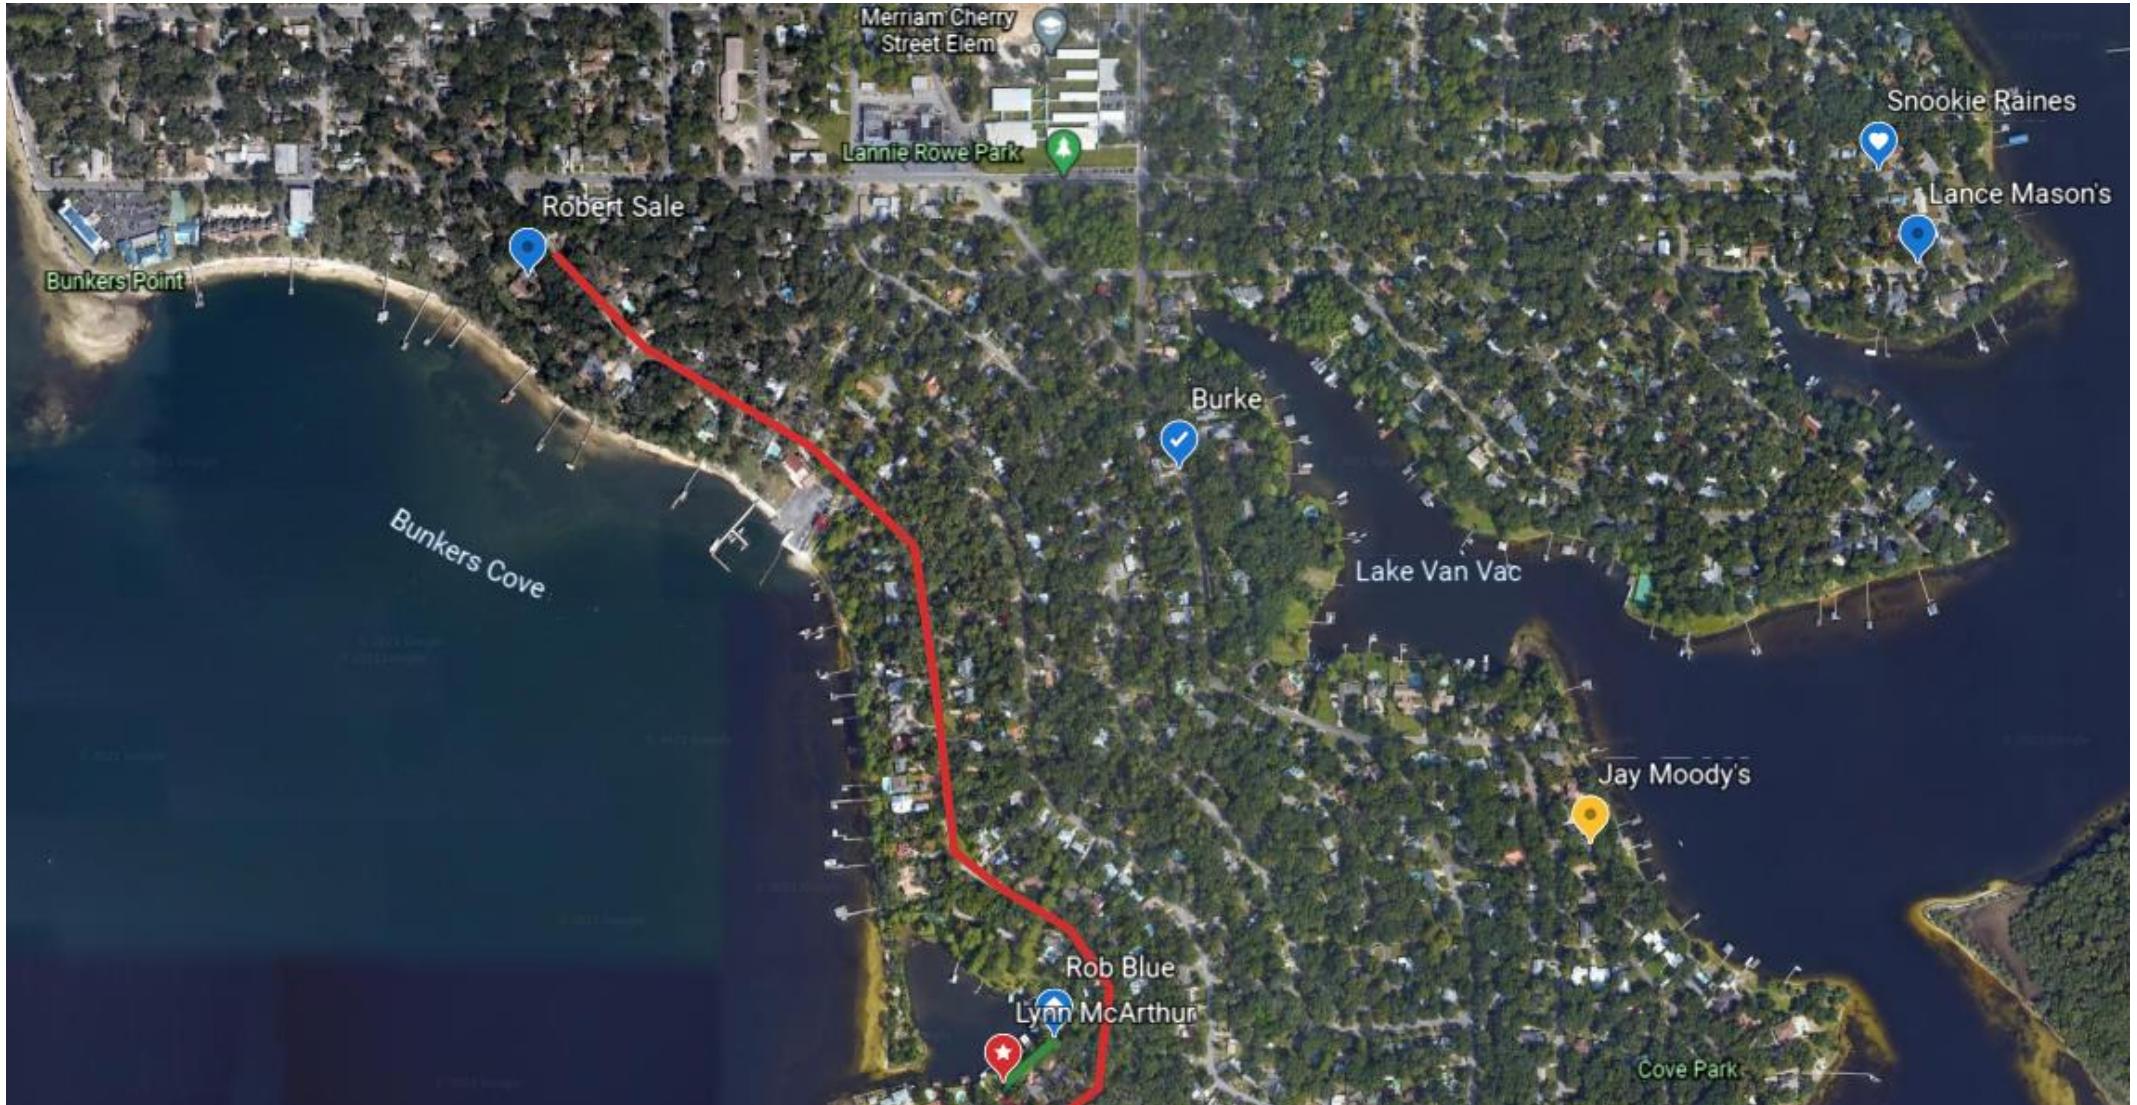

8. When I asked for a written agreement the year before, having found out he was considering partnering with someone else after being given what he was looking for, I was refused and told that it was all "on spec". Three weeks later after seeing the results, Lynn sought to gain control of the source code -- ostensibly to protect it by copyright - and that it would be owned by a newly formed entity, with all the attendant contracts signed by everyone.

9. At first you said that I never responded, but now you say that I declined to see you. If it was substantively different than what you were saying, why didn't you tell me then or at any time since? Why didn't you send a copy and why is not one available now?

10. Sending an email containing unsolicited and purposefully incomplete information on stalking, with several steps omitted (like hearing it from a judge and then disobeying what he says), seem more to frighten my now deceased grandmother than something of informational value that is within the normal discourse

Since you have provided nothing besides Lynn's narrative, and have removed the obligation to provide accounting records, that looks like "Threatening criminal prosecution solely to gain advantage in a civil proceeding"

There are 218k contacts in 1 year, indexed by TownshipRange. I figured that since postage would be six figures, this is quite a pile to play with

LHPD Welfare Check (FHP/Walsh #53)
09:48 - 10:04

Supplement Officer: C Poppell

On October 9, 2020 at approximately 9:30 AM, I was conducting proactive patrol of Call Street Parking Garage 4.

During my patrol, I observed a white Nissan Frontier truck, Fl tag# NRUF17 located on the 1st floor with it's rear window busted out. Upon further examination of the vehicle, I observed from the driver side window numerous items in disarray throughout the truck consistent with a stolen vehicle. I also observed a pill bottle with name Steve Dawson on it in the rear passenger seat of the truck. I was able to locate in PSU student files a Steve Dawson. I contacted Dawson via telephone, to which he stated he has not been in the area for approximately three years. Dawson stated he is located in the Miami Fl area and has no affiliation with this vehicle at all. Dawson appeared to be truthful in his statement. While speaking with Dawson, Officer A. Johnson observed a Winchester 12 gauge shotgun, serial # L3511614 in the rear floorboard of the truck. I retrieved the shotgun and properly unloaded two buckshot shells from the weapon. I placed the shells and shotgun in the trunk of patrol vehicle 3175 for safe keeping. The shotgun was verified through NCIC/ FCIC as not stolen.

McArthur denials

From: W.R. McArthur, Jr., Esq. <WRM@mcarthurenergy.com>

Subject: RE: RE: RE: RE:

How have I fraudulently induced you?

I have wasted more time answering these emails than I care to admit. There is no shifting anything. I have not sent any letters to the names and addresses in Grady or anywhere from anything you've been involved in. I finally figured out how to get on a sharepoint site, at your repeated requests, and there is nothing there that I could see.

I have told you multiple times about the postage and the cost of sending letters within multiple phone conversations, emails and texts. Recall, I showed you where to get the names and addresses in the first place. You have a program that scrapes those names and addresses and makes it easier to send mail-outs. The names and addresses you are scraping are public record.

That is fine to have a clause in the contract to guarantee I will not independently, or through others, send letters to the names and addresses you send me. There is a problem with the fact that I have sent letters in the OK in the past. However, I figured we would just start from scratch with your lists. I think the problem could be solved with your name being on the letters also, which I suggested and you rebuffed. I also think that problem could be solved by YOU maintaining any lists. In fact, it works better that way. If, for instance, you have the names in a contact database on access, I can simply fill in the notes section and you quickly know how anything is progressing. You could audit by spot calling mineral owners to make sure I am not selling minerals and not including you.

Do me a favor. Call a few of those people on your lists and ask them how many letters they get per day asking if they want to sell their minerals. You are deriving way too much from the fact that I offered 50% of what we obtain from leads established by your program. Do you think I am hiding something from you? Do you think I have used your information and made money?

Unilateral change to agreement after gaining control of trade secrets

3/10/2016

McArthur. True...I won't show anything to him if you don't want, but there's no agreement to come to because it's all on spec. I hope he brings a fat deal and needs an attorney and needs a CPA and needs GIS. I want to show him he doesn't need to go anywhere but to me.

Do not give out the keys to the kingdom

I will NOT advise you to do that

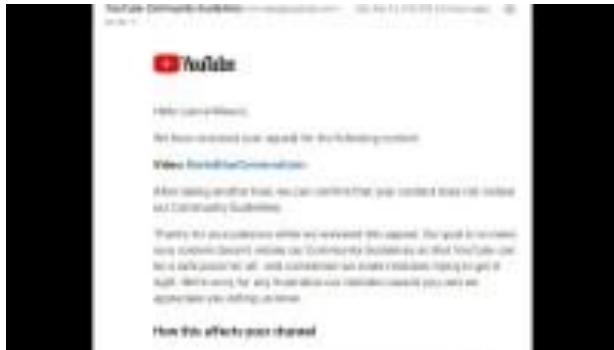

If you can keep it hidden....by all means...cover cover cover

However, I can tell you Luke (like myself) is not in the business of circumventing a CPA or the person who brings the bling and gets the sale done on GIS. Believe me...there is too much other [redacted] to do. CPA GIS must be done, but it's not really something you can cut the guy out because your time is better spent looking for more deals and doing what I do and what Luke does than reinventing the wheel in some [redacted] I know nothing about and do not have a freaking CPA. Luke gets that,

Look at it this way- the money I've made at this so far has been due to one mailout I did from 1 OK pooling application and connections derived therefrom. I did that mailout total old school. If I use your stuff to make money, you get paid. If you trust me, you're good.

The goal would be to get all the Applications that were filed in any and all Sections within the above and then to take the names and addresses of the entities from the Applications and place them in excel. I can then go through them and cull out what we need and do not need. I will then send a solicitation letter to them all.

You have made your positions to each other already. At this point, for a proper mediation, were we all together in a mediation, each side would retire to separate rooms and speak just to the mediator. So how about y'all stop emailing each other directly?

Lance, when I get some time, I will go back and get familiar with everything like I was when I offered to meet I guess it was last year. Then we can sit down and talk about what I think. Meantime, could you boil your complaint down to its essence, one sentence, so I'm sure I look at everything with an aim to address your concern?

Benefit of Robert Sale's fraudulent misrepresentation

The Big Break

2015-11-21 0:47 Lynn DUDE...I'm on to something big. We need to talk 2015-11-21 0:51 Lynn I'm now in the exact position [redacted] were in once they had Apache on the hook for $825/ac.

2015-11-21 0:58 Lynn I have a lease buyer for $3k/ac. Going rate is $2k/ac. Again I have those same PDFs with names and addresses n thousands of potential deals. I need to have

2015-11-21 0:58 Lynn JUST the names and addresses placed in a spreadsheet so I can do a mail merge and track each one. There is no need to get fancy. Just name and address

2015-11-21 0:58 Lynn in excel taken from the PDFs and I can get it done. For your work in putting this together, I will pay you a per acre amount. You will have to trust me

2015-11-21 0:58 Lynn , but can double check on OK County Records.

2015-11-21 0:58 Lynn I'm telling you man....this is my big break and you are positioned for it to be yours as well.

2015-11-21 1:34 Lynn Dude I'm serious this is huge. We need to have a conference at Redfish Point.

11/26/2015 Lynn 11/26/2015 So basically any time any oil and gas activity progresses, there will typically be either a cause filed for a spacing increase or a pooling. In either 12:56:09 AM event, all the interest owners must be noticed and an application with an exhibit containing their names and addresses will be filed with the OCC.

11/26/2015 Lynn 11/26/2015 I have now become entrenched enough to where I will ALWAYS be able to find a buyer of Oklahoma acreage when there is an increase in oil 12:56:11 AM and gas activity in that particular area. Therefore, if there could be a program that scans the OCC for filings that indicate the increase in oil and gas activity, and then compiles the names and addresses in excel and emails those excel files to us, I can immediately issue solicitations.

11/26/2015 Lynn 11/26/2015 My style of solicitation has worked because most who contemplate selling would rather trust an attorney as opposed to a landman broker 12:56:52 AM

11/26/2015 Lynn 11/26/2015 I come to the table disclosing that this is NOT an attorney/client relationship and get the benefit of being an attorney, but not the ethical 12:57:59 AM baggage.

2016-03-28 22:41 Lynn I'm thinking $3000 for all the people. That would be 12,259 mineral owned in Blaine Co where an Application was filed within the last year, correct?
2016-03-28 22:42 Lynn [redacted]in A man...that tracks with the activity I've seen
2016-03-28 22:42 Lynn In terms of what I generally conceptualize as "hotter than a Saturday night" those are the counties in that exact order

Where? When?

I've already asked you twice to stop threatening and making contact with Lynn. You are scaring him and disrupting his life. I told you we were finished discussing the matter with you but if you had a lawyer I would talk to him or her. Your continuing, threatening contact with Lynn can now only be because it is your intent to harass and stalk him and serves no other purpose. You have for some days now been threatening to turn me into the bar so I'm going to have to ask you to stop threatening and harassing both of us.

I invited you last year to come inspect Lynn's records to see that Lynn never used the list you created. You never came to see me. You indicated you were glad a 3rd party had looked at the matter. We took your lack of follow up to mean you were satisfied Lynn had not done deals based on your list.

There never developed nor was there put into writing and signed a fully formed agreement between you on this idea. Lynn is not, despite your threats to turn him (and now me) in to the bar and sue, going to hand you 35k$ when he did not use your product, did not hire you to build him a program, and did not enter an agreement with you. Y'all discussed an idea where if you created a program that produced an accurate list of target sellers and if there was a mail out based on that list and if a target was interested and if Lynn could put a deal together and if that deal were to close y'all could share in the commission.

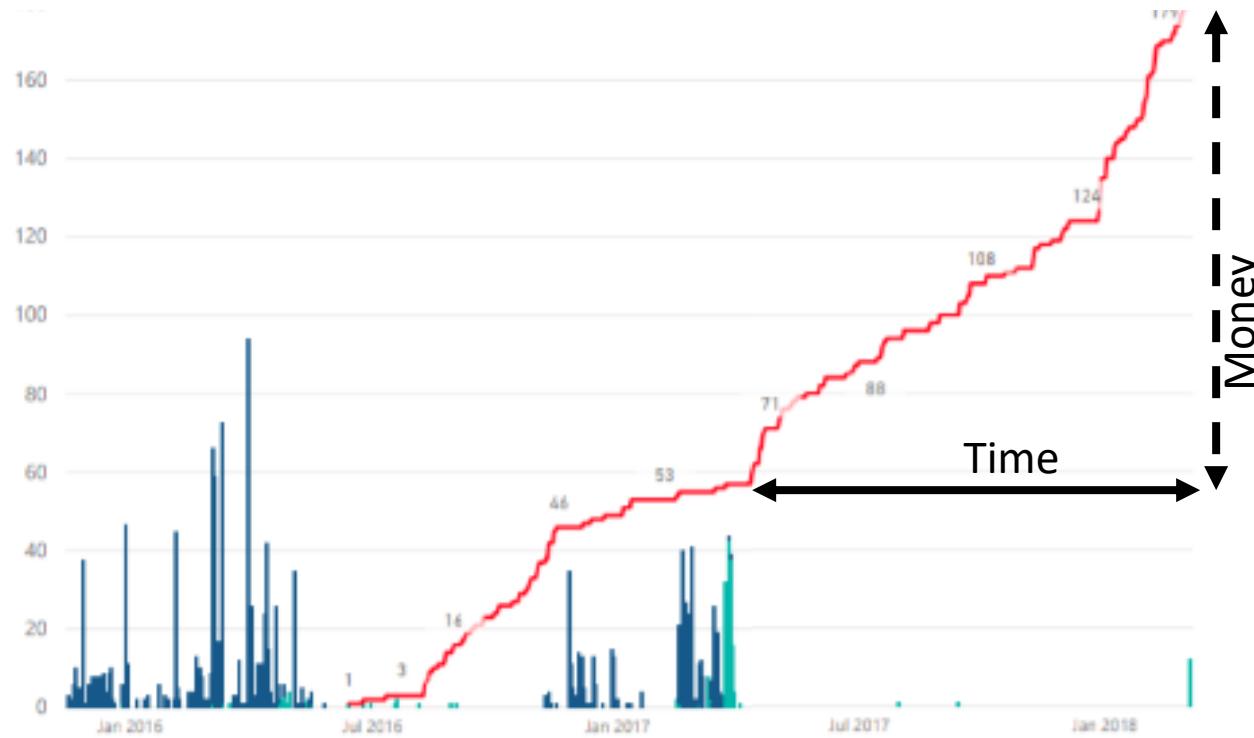

Around the time you produced a list you turned down a written agreement. You began accusing Lynn of theft and fraud and demanding Lynn immediately pay you thousands of dollars or you would complain about him to the bar and sue. Lynn decided you weren't someone stable enough with whom he could continue this business idea. Lynn came to see me last year to ask me to explain to you that he had not used your list and didn't owe you any money. You declined to come see me.

You are back now and have rapidly exceeded the scope of reasonable discourse. I believe you are now just seeking to inflict fear unless Lynn gives you money.

Do not communicate with either of us unless it is through an attorney. Should you do so, we will have explore our remedies which will include complaining about being threatened, harassed, and stalked. There is no reason for you to contact us again unless it is through an attorney.

We ask you to move on with the program you created and try to get others interested in paying you for using it.

You have made your positions to each other already. At this point, for a proper mediation, were we all together in a mediation, each side would retire to separate rooms and speak just to the mediator. So how about y'all stop emailing each other directly?

ance, when I get some time, I will go back and get familiar with everything like I was when I offered to meet I guess it was last year. Then we can sit down and talk about what I think. Meantime, could you boil our complaint down to its essence, one sentence, so I'm sure I look at everything with an aim to address our concern?

Thanks, Robert

You cause him emotional distress when you make contact with him. I asked you before and I'm asking you again to just don't me. We have stated our position and don't think it's productive to continue to debate with you. If you get a lawyer I will discuss the matter with him.

narrative does not substitute for the accounting and the message sent in Oklahoma, which is what I had asked for.

RESPONSE

1. You promised to have financial and other records available. These would have been required a year before when you made your assertions, now proved false.
 2. When you finished discussing the matter I noticed that instead of giving me a copy of your evaluation, you had still only provided a narrative with different words from Lynn. I never wanted Lynn to just reword his denials and have you deliver them, but instead had since day one asked for the accounting and mailing lists he used, after being given mailing lists that do the same thing by me
 3. I didn't think there would be a difference in what you showed me and what you were saying over the phone, so I trusted and relied on that.
 4. The deception had been initially successful. It would be dishonest to accuse someone falsely without showing there was at least some thing I had based the accusation on. You were supposed to act as my agent to find out the answer
 5. That is not a requirement as an agent or business partner or getting a haircut, among many others.
 6. You refuse to provide the accounting which could prove or disprove the allegation. I have to rely solely on an evolving, self-interested denial by the defendant, which does not provide sufficient relevant information that would support my decision on whether or not I believe the denials
 7. On what date did these discussions occur? Where do you find that information?
 8. When I asked for a written agreement the year before, having found out he was considering partnering with someone else after being given what he was looking for, I was refused and told that it was all "on spec". Three weeks later after seeing the results, Lynn sought to gain control of the source code -- ostensibly to protect it by copyright - and that it would be owned by a newly formed entity, with all the attendant contracts signed by everyone.
 9. At first you said that I never responded, but now you say that I declined to see you. If it was substantively different than what you were saying, why didn't you tell me then or at any time since? Why didn't you send a copy and why is not one available now?
 10. Sending an email containing unsolicited and purposefully incomplete information on stalking, with several steps omitted (like hearing it from a judge and then disobeying what he says), seem more to frighten my now deceased grandmother than something of informational value that is within the normal discourse
Since you have provided nothing besides Lynn's narrative, and have removed the obligation to provide accounting records, that looks like "Threatening criminal prosecution solely to gain advantage in a civil proceeding"

Narrative:

On 11/02/20 I was contacted by FSU Police Communications Officer D. Harbin. PCO Harbin advised that Lance Mason had called the FSU Police Department requesting to report his vehicle stolen. Mason's vehicle was towed at the request of the registered owner Patricia Futrell on 10/09/20. This is the same date Mason was issued a trespass warning for Florida State University Property. PCO Harbin stated he advised Mason that he could not report the vehicle stolen as he was not the registered owner. PCO Harbin advised Mason had called three(3) times and during the third phone call requested to speak with a supervisor. Also during the phone calls with PCO Harbin, Mason informed him that he was recording the conversation and it would be posted to his YouTube channel. PCO Harbin informed me and provided a phone number 850-819-8817. At this time neither PCO Harbin or myself was aware that Mason is violating his Leon County Pretrial Release order issued by Judge Hobbs on 10/10/20.

I called Mason at the provided phone number 850-819-8817, and he did inform me that he was recording our conversation. Mason stated that he wanted to report, the vehicle stolen. I informed him the vehicle was towed at the request of the vehicle owner. He proceeded to begin to discuss a reported title which was allegedly in the glove box of the vehicle. I informed Mason that he would need to file a civil lawsuit against his mother to determine ownership of the vehicle, but at this time he failed to complete the transfer of vehicle ownership. Mason began discussing his property that was impounded at the FSU Police Department. Mason indicated that he was advised his property could not be located when he inquired previously. I advised Mason that he would need to contact FSU Property and Evidence to arrange the return of his property. After approximately 15 minutes of debate and argumentative discussion our conversation was ended. Mason indicated the conversation would be posted to his Social Media account.

Upon researching the location of Mason's property I discovered that he has been violating the Pretrial Release order issued by Judge Hobbs in Case Number 2020MM1732A1. I spoke with FSU Property and Evidence Custodian B. Woodaz. Woodaz stated she had been receiving phone calls from an acquaintance of Mason regarding return of his property. Woodaz indicated she was provided an email address for Mason and sent an email on 10/16/20 at 12:07 PM with instructions on how to retrieve his property. Mason responded at 1:44PM from the email address "turncoatenergy@gmail.com". The entire email thread is attached to this report. Mason's reply is included below.

On October 9, 2020 at approximately 9:30 AM, I was conducting proactive patrol of Call Street Parking Garage 4.

During my patrol, I observed a white Nissan Frontier truck, Fl tag# NRUF17 located on the 1st floor with it's rear window busted out. Upon further examination of the vehicle, I observed from the driver side window numerous items in disarray throughout the truck consistent with a stolen vehicle. I also observed a pill bottle with name Steve Dawson on it in the rear passenger seat of the truck. I was able to locate in FSU student files a Steve Dawson. I contacted Dawson via telephone, to which he stated he has not been in the area for approximately three years. Dawson stated he is located in the Miami Fl area and has no affiliation with this vehicle at all. Dawson appeared to be truthful in his statement. While speaking with Dawson, Officer A. Johnson observed a Winchester 12 gauge shotgun, serial # L3511614 in the rear floorboard of the truck. I retrieved the shotgun and properly unloaded two buckshot shells from the weapon. I placed the shells and shotgun in the trunk of patrol vehicle 3175 for safe keeping. The shotgun was verified through NCIC/ FCIC as not stolen.

I was able to locate the registered owner of the vehicle, Patricia Futrell, via telephone through FSUPD communications by the tag number. I contacted the local police department in Lynn Haven to conduct a welfare check on Futrell. I spoke with Officer Walsh badge# 53. Walsh stated he spoke with Futrell and she would be contacting FSUPD. Futrell contacted me via telephone through FSUPD communications. Futrell stated she gifted the truck to her son, Lance Mason. Futrell said she has not heard from Mason for a long period of time and has no contact information for him. Futrell stated Mason was supposed to register the vehicle in his name but never did due to his drug problems and lack of money. Futrell advised she would be en-route to Tallahassee to remove the vehicle from FSU property since it is still registered in her name and she is the legal owner and liable for the vehicle. Futrell advised she wanted the truck towed to a safe location at her expense until she arrived in Tallahassee. A rotational wrecker (Ability Towing) was contacted per Futrell's request.

During my conversation with Futrell, I observed a white male approaching the Nissan truck. The male identified himself as Lance Mason and provided a Fl drivers license number and date of birth. Mason's identity was verified through FSUPD communications. Mason stated the vehicle belongs to him and he ran out of fuel. Mason stated he left the vehicle parked there overnight until he could return with fuel. Mason was unable to provide any type of documentation to prove the vehicle belonged to him. Mason was persistent on retrieving the title of the vehicle from the glove box. I advised Mason before he entered the vehicle I would need to pat him down for weapons, to which he agreed. Upon completion of the pat down Mason became very irate and claimed he was being setup. Mason refused to enter the vehicle and left the area.

A short time later I spoke with Futrell and advised her of the address where the truck would be towed. I also advised of her of the shotgun found in the floorboard. Futrell stated she would retrieve the shotgun as well upon her arrival to FSUPD.

I am attaching my supplemental report to FSUPD Case # 2010-0052, documenting to violations of Judge Hobbs Pretrial Release Order. It appears the notice you sent dated 10/12/20 was received and scanned into our case file by Records Manager K. Gray on 10/22/2020. I am unsure if there was any further distribution of the Order. Please advise Judge Hobbs of these violations and proceed as the Honorable Judge Hobbs sees best.

have you gotten any Discovery back?

I'd like to respond to this email but I am prevented. it seems an unusual requirement that I not be able to speak with the administration who is the principal to these guys agent and I'll bet you is not aware. is that not a form of violating my right of redress? this is not a private institution but a publicly funded University of which I am an alumnus. am I supposed to suspend all academic activity while they sort out a case that they can't produce Discovery for? why am I bound to their requirements while they are not bound to produce evidence?

Mr. Mason,

I have reviewed the video footage, however I have since switched computers. The State is re-sending the footage over so I can download and save the footage. I understand this is a frustrating process, but please know that I am working on your case even if I have no current updates for you. I had a cancellation, so I am free for a phone appointment on January 8th at 11am. Please let me know if you are available so we can review and discuss your case. If you have any questions that I can answer over email, I would be more than happy to do so.

Good afternoon Mr. Mason,

I just got off the phone with Officer Gaskins at the pretrial office and let her know you were having difficulty contacting her due to having no minutes. She said no problem and to call in next week. Thank you for contacting me and let me know if you have any further issues. Please let me know if you are available on January 8th at 11am for a phone appointment.

Thanks,

Lauren Brooker

Pat,

I have no way to call my pre-trial since I have no minutes. Since I cannot easily contact the FBI without a phone, can I get some minutes and I'll pay you back?

Since you orchestrated the FSU incident and won't now provide a written statement about it, I was thinking maybe you could make it easier to contact (~~PREtrial~~, attorney, FBI) that are a result of your coordinated efforts with the FSU PD.

Withdrawing from a conspiracy

<https://www.fletc.gov/audio/federal-conspiracy-law-mp3>

Just as the law recognizes that a person can join an on-going conspiracy, the law also recognizes that an individual may withdraw from a Conspiracy prior to its completion. Withdrawal from a Conspiracy requires more than simply no longer participating. To withdraw from a Conspiracy, there are two basic requirements: First – the person must do some affirmative act inconsistent with the goals of the Conspiracy. Unless the co-conspirator can demonstrate that he quit the Conspiracy, his or her participation in the Conspiracy is presumed to continue. Second – the co-conspirator must do some affirmative act that is reasonably calculated to communicate to a fellow co-conspirator, or law enforcement, that he has withdrawn from the Conspiracy. Withdrawal from a Conspiracy is an affirmative defense that must be raised and proven by the defendant

I don't know if that's enough of an argument for you to make, but it is a start.

Thanks in advance.

Lauren,

Please contact my pre trial and let them know. I'll try to have minutes by the end of the day.

switching computers does not seem like something unforeseeable or unusual. for it to cause you to lose the critical evidence I've been asking for for 3 months, when you can just forward the email they sent you, does not make me more comfortable.

Sergeant Collier was Johnny on the spot in getting my pre-trial violated he hoped, for doing something like trying to get my property back or the body cam video at issue. I believe that there are serious violations and this is going to the FBI just as soon as I can get it to them.

I do not want to give them another opportunity to whitewash it as my civil rights are horse traded away. I want to see the original email that the links to dropbox were provided to you. that should be independent of whoever has your old computer as it's just your email inbox as an aside I'm curious who had your old computer and how come you didn't just get it off of that one but I digress.

and just to be clear I'm not talking about only the second incident I'm talking about the entire first and second incident from the begin time to the end time of the report. the first incident was 2 hours and 15 minutes and there were five officers. I have about 15 minutes or so on that one and zero on the second incident. let's just avoid the round trip if they didn't provide that so that we don't have to come back and ask me again and add a week. my mom is trying to starve me out I don't know if you heard the video of them assaulting me just after I mentioned that it was curious that her brother was trying to get me arrested and she didn't so much as utter a peep. you probably don't know that the bar has disappeared a case number that was written in my grandmother's handwriting. these are the kind of things that I already know and that are a waste of time for me to tell you and hope you can interpret them the way that I want or that you might not be as aggressive as I can in noting civil rights violations and a nightmare for Florida State administration and their alumni program.

also something I've been asking is does the administration have anything to say on the record about this? I would like to know the name of that person and their statement.

I do not need to schedule a conference with you sometime out in the future because I'm taking the case over temporarily at least. we can't have a review as to what has been done so that we don't have a duplication but I think it's far more effective if I am directing the questions without the filter and the delay and the need to work together in the future that I don't have with them. I will let you know the next if I have any updates or if I have any further questions. I will follow up with you in a week or so.

Lance,

I'm not sure I fully understand these messages....we have our own internal software engineers and data scientists who developed our own models, programs and tools. We don't share those with anyone and we don't use other people's. Can you please help clarify what this is all about?

Thanks,
Will

We have been trying to reach you in order to sign over 2007 Ford Freestyle over to you for some time. You do not respond. We no longer want the liability for said vehicle. We have offered to pay any transfer fees and cost of new tag and 6 months of insurance coverage.

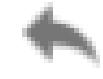

You have until November 15, 2021 in order to do this. After that time, this will serve as notice of "unauthorized use of vehicle" and will be reported as such.

This is not meant as a threat but simply a business transaction as the gift of a car. However, the proper procedures have to be followed.

As I've said yesterday and now, I am not asking you or telling you to plead guilty. We do not enter guilty pleas in this circuit.

Please stop contacting me until you have cleared your warrant.

not you, but my mother. i am insulted as well if we're on the subject, of the apparent insensitivity of bringing in chick fila while my grandmother starves. Call it by another name and it smells the same. Is it not at a minimum impolite? You may not have known that she doesn't like the light on when she is trying to sleep, yet there it was. Your quote, "well i have to be able to see my food". You could have gone two or three paces not had the problem. If she could have gotten up and moved she would have. I mean she didn't call when she knew that death was coming so that she would not bother you guys, so you could have walked outside the room or in the bathroom or something. I've never seen the doctor come in eating food in response to the earlier ad hominem.

hazard of sharing phone without notification of the other party and i, sir was the one there, when the priest had read her last rights and she realized that there were no efforts underway to save her. i felt it with her and experienced it and will never forget ever and I wish i could. it was the worst moment of my life. nanny was scared as fuck, so spare me the lecture on it please as i nailed it with the parking spot. what was the other reason? it's a rhetorical question because the answer is already known

What are your plans for the evening

i'm downstairs. you can park your care back where it was and have harry take you home and pretend like you were here all night

that was a strange reaction from hcf when i said i was taking my case to the fbi, like it was a bad idea. why is that? he's expressed no interest before about it and knows very little about it. so there was something strange about ihat

: that this was bad. it's free and they have all the resources in the world to go after the perpetrators and presumably will know the most about it and after the doj finishes, then winning the suit is pro forma

hey since we are using a community phone, i'll just address in the interest of saving keystrokes. That was most unusual of you harry was there ever a response to my beef about nanny and chick fila or the travel schedule and your not getting the call when nanny's thing broke? it was you that was acting strange. i can defend my position all day long and the best you can come up with is threatening to punch me? This is the guy telling me about how logical i used to be? it's a good indicator as to whether you've won a point, by counting many strong arguments from the other side you get before they resort to ad hominem or diversion trying to move the conversation somewhere else by whatever method. if someone has the goods, they'll stand and trade or better yet the logic k.o. you're not doing that, yet you seem to try to set up in advance an incident with witnesses. you doth protest too much

The CAD sheet that I sent you is all I have for that case number. There was no report written. You will need to contact FHP or FSU for more information. Also there were no further calls to that address.
